Annexure 1

Greetings,

This is the Qlik Academic Program reaching out to share some exciting news! We have now streamlined our application process for educators and students! What was once a separate process of registering for a Qlik account and then returning to the website to continue the application has become one seamless experience.

New and returning members of the program can now visit qlik.com/academicprogram to create a Qlik account and apply to the program by completing 3 simple and continuous steps.

1. Create a Qlik account or login as a returning member. Beginning now, new accounts will automatically be activated so there is no longer a need to search for and click on the account activation email.

2. Complete the application
 - Educators will now be required to attach proof of educator status or a link to their educator profile directly from the university (linkedin will not be accepted)
 - Students will still be required to attach proof of current enrollment from the university

3. Accept the terms and conditions and submit the application.

4. Once approved, you will receive emails to set up your Qlik Sense tenant and welcome you into the program.

If you have any questions regarding the new changes, please email us at academicprogram@qlik.com

Thank you,

Qlik Academic Program
